

Zoopendous Nights Sleepover Program

Los Angeles Zoo & Botanical Gardens

5333 Zoo Drive, Los Angeles, CA 90027

phone: (323) 644-4224

fax: (323) 644-4228

email: lazoo.education@lacity.org

www.lazoo.org

Zoopendous Nights is an Indoor Sleepover Program at the Los Angeles Zoo that is designed to give Scout groups ages 6-12 and community groups the opportunity to experience the L.A. Zoo at night.

ARRIVAL/DEPARTURE:

PROGRAM CHECK-IN WILL BEGIN AT 6 PM.

Please park in the Main Zoo Parking Lot and meet the Education Staff at the Children’s Discovery Center Entrance (to the right of the Main Zoo Entrance). The program starts at 6:00 pm. Once your whole group has arrived we will escort you and your belongings to your sleeping area. The program concludes at 9:15 a.m. the following morning. If you wish to return to the Zoo at 10:00 a.m., you must pay Zoo admission. Girl Scout troop leaders please note, if you have male chaperones spending the night with your group, they will be required to sleep in a separate space from the troop.

What the Zoo Will Provide:

- Pizza Dinner, cookie dessert and Beverage
- Continental breakfast
- Designated indoor sleeping area
- Educational activities led by our Education Staff, including an evening walking tour
- Convenient restrooms in sleeping area (no showering facilities)

What Participants Need to Bring:

- Sleeping bag, pillow, sleeping mat or air mattress
- Reusable water bottle
- A jacket or sweater in case of cool or inclement weather
- Clothing and personal items (toothbrush & toothpaste, etc.)
- Participants with food restrictions are urged to bring their own food.
- Please, no toys, radios, or other electronic equipment
- This is an alcohol-free event